Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began the program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-times graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

All funds paid will be returned if the student is not accepted for enrollment. You may cancel this contract and obtain a refund of charges paid through the attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. This right to cancel the agreement for a course of instruction includes any equipment such as books, materials and supplies (not opened and tampered with for sanitary reason) or any other goods related to the instruction included in this agreement.

Cancellation: shall occur when you give written notice of cancellation to the school Director at the institution's address. You can do this by mail, hand delivery, or email. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when it is deposited in the mail properly addressed with prepaid postage. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form, however expressed; it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

Equipment: if the institution has given you any returnable equipment, including books or other materials, you shall return it to the institution within 30 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the 30-day period, the institution may deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. As stated in the front page of this agreement, beauty supplies and equipment are not returnable items due to sanitary reasons. Therefore, once you have received any beauty equipment, its cost is charged to your account.
